1. Limit for payment of expenses by cash (both, capital and revenue expenditure) reduced from Rs.20000 to Rs.10000 per day in aggregate per person. Capital expenses paid in cash beyond the said limit will not be taken into account for depreciation purposes. However, the cash payment limit for lorry freight etc. remains the same at Rs.35000.
2. No person shall receive an amount of two lakh rupees or more, by cash (Sec. 269ST) –

The penalty for violation of above is to be a sum equal to the amount of such receipt.

Examples for above –

- 2) If one sells goods worth Rs. 300000 through single bill to another person and receives cash of Rs.150000 on day 1 and another Rs.150000 on day 2 then section 269ST(b) will get violated, since it pertains to single transaction.
- 3) If one accepts cash of Rs.180000 for sales and Rs.20000 for freight charges, then section 269ST(c) will get violated even if cash is accepted on different dates, since they pertain to a single sales event.
- 4) If one sells his car for Rs.300000 and receives the amount in cash, then penalty levied on him will be Rs.300000.
